LECTURES

Lessons from War in a Battle of Ideas

An Ancient Message Through Modern Means to a Postmodern World

These are extraordinary times. And this conference is squarely aimed at helping believers more clearly understand the challenges of our times as well as gain insight into how we can effectively speak to the confusion and fear that fill the lives of so many.

Ravi Zacharias is extraordinarily able to offer perspective and wisdom on our times. He says, "At a time in cultural and world history when absolutes in religion stir up fear, it is imperative to communicate truth without defacing the individual."

This conference will offer vital help to all who are seeking to grow in their understanding of truth and faith, and it promises great benefits for all who attend.

THESE LECTURES WILL HELP YOU:

- ◆ Gain a greater understanding of the real issues behind current events and the rhetoric surrounding them
- ◆ Strengthen your confidence in speaking to others in the cultural and moral debate
- ◆ Better know how to view events in light of their philosophical basis.

Audio Tapes of Lessons from War in a Battle of Ideas series may be ordered following the conference through the website, phone, or fax. Visa and MasterCard accepted.
